

IRG409096B - Villa for sale in Lisbon

Luxury villa in Lapa, Lisbon

In the heart of Lapa, one of the most desirable residential districts of Lisbon, this 5 floor Villa boast a charming architectural style reminiscent of English traditional homes.

The garden has 200m2 and has guests accommodation with kitchen, bar, living room and a terrace.

The Main Residence

The residence was built in the 1930's but totally renovated in 1981 by the renowned architect Maria José Salavisa who managed to transform this property into a warm and functional family house.

The main marble entrance on the ground floor leads to a beautiful hand painted dining room, a kitchen with access to the patio/garden.

Access to all floors can be done either by the lift or by the stairs. The first floor has the main master suite and a cosy living room.

The second floor has 3 bedrooms well served by bathrooms originally planned for the children. The upper floor of the villa is completed with a top floor ideal for attic storage. From the top floors there are views over Lisbon city and Tagus river.

Staff accommodation, laundry, extra storage and technical rooms are located in the basement. The garage is in an adjoining building with space for 3+1 cars.
