

VIL4994 - Villa for sale in Almancil

Luxury four bedroom villa in The Village

Without a doubt, one of the finest homes in the resort, with top build quality and fabulous furnishings that would make any owner proud of their home. Set along the South ridge of the Vale da Quinta estate, this property benefits from one of the largest plots and a fantastic view towards the ocean in the distance and over the pine valley and surrounding orange groves. Upon entering the villa you are immediately greeted by the impressive entrance hall and feature staircase. From here is access to the fourth guest bedroom, guest WC and leading through to the main living room with fireplace and through to the spacious modern kitchen / dining room. Ascending the stone clad staircase, there are two further guest bedrooms, both with en-suite, and the impressive master with bath and shower and terraces overlooking the pool terrace and gardens. Descending from the ground floor, lies the deceptively large basement, with excellent divisions to the large 2 car garage with storage areas, and a huge games room with subdivided office and separate bathroom. An ideal place for the whole family to enjoy. Externally, the property has a large garden with ample seating areas for both dining and relaxing, and the large heated swimming pool offers a refreshing and welcome break from the summer sun. Technically, the property is equipped with electric shutters throughout, under floor heating, air conditioning and plasma televisions in all rooms. High quality materials and excellent layout make this a must view villa.
